

Archives – Oregon State University Libraries

<http://osulibrary.oregonstate.edu/archives/>

College of Home Economics Motion Picture Films and Videotapes (FV P 044)
Preliminary Container List

Motion Picture Films, circa 1950 – circa 1960

Box 1

FV P044:1 – Withycombe House, circa 1955; 16 mm b/w with sound; apx. 350 ft.

FV P044:3 – Home Economics Careers, circa 1960; 16 mm b/w kinescope

(perhaps of KOAC-TV broadcast) with sound; apx. 500 feet.

Home Management House and Nursery School, 1955-1956; 4 reels of b/w super 8 mm film depicting home economics students with children.

Box 2

Mattress Construction, circa 1950; 16 mm color with soundtrack; 400 feet. The film includes no title or credit frames. It is in marginal conditions as it exhibits some warping and shrinkage of the film base.

Videotapes, 1985-1998

Box 3

Family Study Center at OSU, 1987; 5 VHS videotapes. Includes music and narration by Richard Ross and Dave Andrews.

College of Home Economics centennial, 1988. Several takes of a rehearsed statement by a crowd in front of the Memorial Union declaring the 100th anniversary of the College in May 1988. The recording was made for the Good Morning, America television program and the videotape provided by KEZI television station in Eugene.

FV P044:2 – Dean Betty Hawthorne, February 10, 1986.

When Dependency Increases, 1990; distributed by Extension Gerontology. Tapes of two programs in this series: 260 Primrose Lane and The Dollmaker.

Box 4

Lectures and presentations by off-campus speakers for home economics education classes, 1985-1989; 10 VHS videotapes. Topics include teen/parent programs, food science and technology, fashion merchandising, and teaching about interpersonal relationships in high school. Presenters include Joanne Miksis, Debbie Zeller, Doris Brannan, Kay Mehas, and Clara Pratt.

Box 5

Lecture by Gini Teemer (Chris Southers), 1986.
Nutrition education programs throughout the United States, undated.

Home Economics in Portland Public Schools, 1985; Portland Public Schools Consumer/Homemaking Committee.

Mini-College: Oregon's Best-Kept Secret, 1998; prepared by OSU Extension and Experiment Station Communications.

Mini College Promotion, 1994; 2 videotapes.